

Australian Cycling Conference
The 2009 Australian Cycling Conference will be held in the University of Adelaide's Napier Building on North Terrace, Adelaide, on the rest day of the Tour Down Under — Monday 19 January.

This Conference provides an opportunity for academics, practitioners and advocates of cycling to present papers on cycling research and new cycling projects. It is an opportunity to network with people involved in cycling research, policy development, planning and project implementation. The conference aims to develop cycling research, knowledge and expertise in Australia and New Zealand.

Who should attend: Researchers, transport and urban planning professionals, cycling organisations and advocates.

Costs and registration: The registration cost will be $75 including GST. This can be paid either as cash on the day, or by cheque or credit card. The cost include morning and afternoon tea, as well as lunch. To register for the conference, please fill in and return the registration form (attached).

Program: The program for the conference will be available to download from the website (www.hubtt.com.au/australiancyclingconference) from 8 December.

Further information: Contact the Conference Convenor, Dr Stuart Clement, at conference@hubtt.com.au or by mobile on 0405 702 483. Watch for updates on the website.
